30 CONDITIONAL

IMAGINED CONDITIONS: THE THIRD CONDITIONAL

We use the third conditional when we imagine a different past, where something did or did not happen, and we imagine a different

- If I had played better, I would have won. (I didn't play well and I didn't win.)
- It would have been easier if George had brought his own car. (George didn't bring his own car, so the situation was difficult.)
- If the dog hadn't barked, we wouldn't have known there was someone in the garden. (The dog barked, so we knew there was someone in the garden.)
